

Inna Zaleschikova Gilmore

Classical Flutist

BIO (Extended)

Inna Gilmore---flutist, prizewinner of international competitions.

Ms. Gilmore is a recipient of Artists International Special Presentation Award, and gave her New York Debut at Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall (2008), which was praised highly in the New York Concert Review.

Her other awards include prizes in the Haynes International Flute Competition in Boston, the Classical Heritage International Competition in Moscow and the Russian National Competition of Woodwinds in St. Petersburg.

Inna Gilmore has been performing actively as a solo recitalist with her husband, pianist Brian Gilmore.

Her professional debut took place in 1995 at Tchaikovsky Philharmonic Hall at the Moscow Autumn Music Festival as a concerto soloist with the Russian State Symphony Cinema Orchestra (S. Skripka, conductor), in a performance broadcast on National Television.

From 1995 to 2001, she performed in the Moscow Autumn Music Festival as both soloist and orchestra member. Professional solo performances have taken her to the Bolshoi, Maliy and Rachmaninoff Halls of Tchaikovsky Moscow Conservatory, The Concert Hall of Russian Composers Union, Tchaikovsky Philharmonic Hall, the State Academic Cappella Concert Hall in St. Petersburg, the Tambov Philharmonic Hall. Other engagements include concerto performances with the Moscow Chamber Orchestra Cantus Firmus, the Tambov Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra in Russia, and the South Orange Symphony Orchestra in New Jersey.

Collaborations with composers include a tour to Southeast Russia and series of performances at the Tchaikovsky Conservatory and the Arts Institute in Moscow with the renowned composer Vladislav Kazenin, Artist of the People and President of the Russian Union of Composers. She also recorded and premiered in the Concert Hall of the Russian Composers Union and Concert House of Arts in Moscow several works of the distinguished composer Yuri Chugunov, Honored Artist of Russia, who dedicated his flute compositions to her. Annually, from 1998 to 2001, Ms. Gilmore performed with Alexander Korneyev and harpsichordist Alexander Maykapar in series of concerts at Bulgarian Cultural Center in Moscow.

As an orchestral player she worked as a member of the Concert Orchestra of Radio and Television, Moscow (1997-2001).

Ms. Gilmore graduated with honors from Tchaikovsky Moscow Conservatory (Alexander Korneyev).

In America she continued her professional flute studies with Loren Lind (Philadelphia Orchestra) and later had additional study with Paula Robison at the New England Conservatory, Boston.

She has performed in masterclasses with Jeanne Baxtresser, Trevor Wye, Sir James Galway, Michael Parloff, Gary Schocker, Paula Robison, Ransom Wilson and András Adorján.

Inna Gilmore is a Haynes Flute Artist.

For more information, please visit www.InnaGilmore.com